18 April 1975

25X1A

25X1A

[   ] has not mentioned changing the Guidelines but if we were to take out the word sanitization would suggest the following changes:

Cover memo: change subject matter to read "Guidelines for Paraphrasing Sensitive Information in Certain Documents Provided to Select Committees"

Cover memo, paragraph 1, line 4: change to read "-- in paraphrasing sensitive information in"

Guidelines

Page 1: change caption to read "Guidelines for Paraphrasing Sensitive Information in Certain Documents Provided to Select Committees"

Page 1, paragraph 2, line 1: delete sanitization

Page 1, paragraph 3, line 1: delete sanitization

Page 1, paragraph 4, heading: changed "sanitized" to "paraphrased"

Page 2, paragraph 5(a), line 3: change "sanitized" to "paraphrased"

Page 2, paragraph 5(a), line 6: change "sanitization" to "paraphrasing"

Page 2, paragraph 5(b), 2nd line from end: change to read "tesimony, special consideration should be given with regard to raw products which reveal critical operational capabilities"

Page 3, paragraph 6, line 3: change "sanitization" to "paraphrasing"

Page 3, paragraph 8, line 5: change "sanitization" to "paraphrasing"

Page 5, paragraph 9, heading: change "Sanitization" to "Paraphrasing"

Page 5, paragraph 9, line 1: change sentence to read, "Paraphrasing of intelligence material may include the physical removal of the identity of a person, place or thing from written communication."

Page 5, paragraph 9, line 4: change "sanitization" to "paraphrasing"

Page 5, paragraph 9, line 6: change "Sanitization" to "Paraphrasing"

Page 5, paragraph 9, line 7: delete "in this context"

Page 5, paragraph 9, line 9: delete "sanitization"

Page 5, paragraph 10, heading: change "Sanitization" to "Documents"

Page 5, paragraph 10, line 1: change "sanitized" to "paraphrased"

Page 6, last paragraph, line 1: change "sanitization" to "paraphrasing"

Page 6, last paragraph, line 6: change "sanitization" to "paraphrasing"

Page 6, last sentence: delete "on sanitization"

     I doubt that these changes improve the paper but they do remove the sanitizing aspect.

25X1A